

Economics and Business

BARKER

Named after Richard Barker, Assistant Master 1967-81, Housemaster of B3 and Headmaster of Sevenoaks School, who pioneered the teaching of Business in UK schools. The prize is awarded to the best pupil in the Upper Sixth.

Awarded to: Henry Grant (C3 U6)

KEE

Founded in 1987 by Miss E-Lene Kee (B2 1985-87) to be awarded to the pupil who has made the greatest progress in the A level Economics course.

Awarded to: Ben Chetwood (C2 L6)

REISS

Founded in 1917 in memory of Stephen Lacy Reiss (LI 1903-06) who was killed in action at the battle of Loos on 13th October 1915. A student of Balliol College, Oxford, he joined the Royal Berkshire Regiment as a Lieutenant in 1914. This prize is awarded to the best Business pupil in the Upper Sixth.

Awarded to: Henrietta Mackenzie (IH U6)

ST JOHNSTON

Founded in 1971 by Sir Eric St Johnston to support the launching of Business. This is awarded for the best all-round performance in the Lower Sixth. Eric St Johnston rose through the ranks of the police to become an important advisor during and after WW2. He was one of the first to enter Paris with De Gaulle's forces after the German withdrawal and advised on the establishment of police forces in Europe in the post-war settlement.

Awarded to: Hugo McCammon (PR L6)

English

AVERY

Founded in 2017 by Peter Stephens (OM B3 1962-72) and named in memory of Robert Avery, an outstanding teacher of English and Head of Drama from 1968-1990, also HM of junior House Elmhurst until its closure in 1989. To be awarded for the best piece of work on drama by a Lower School pupil.

Awarded to: Jade Galliford (MO Hu)

CHATWIN

Founded in 1991 by family members of Charles Bruce Chatwin (B2 1953-58), journalist, photographer, traveller and author, in his memory. This prize is awarded for the best Lower School performance in exams and throughout the year. Chatwin was born in 1940 and was a Classicist at Marlborough. He joined Sotheby's rather than attend university, becoming an expert in Antiquities and the Impressionists. Although he began reading Archaeology at Edinburgh in 1966, he left without taking a degree and became a journalist with the Sunday Times Magazine. He wrote wonderful books on Patagonia, West Africa, the Welsh borders and Native Australia, as well as several novels. He died of AIDS in 1989, being one of the first well-known figures in the UK to do so.

Awarded to: Henry Blatchford (CO Hu)